

Noora Britschgi

Title: Senior Associate

Office: Helsinki

Mobile: +358 50 561 2358

E-mail: noora.britschgi@hannessnellman.com

Languages: English, Finnish, Swedish

Noora works as a senior associate mainly focusing on environmental law. She advises both domestic and international clients on matters related to environmental liabilities, planning and zoning, energy, and permitting, and she is also involved in administrative judicial procedures. In addition, Noora provides advice on environmental regulatory matters. Noora has gained experience especially on wind power development projects, and she has represented clients, such as energy companies, heavy industry manufacturers, international private equity firms, and commercial banks.

Noora has trained on the bench at the District Court of South-Ostrobothnia and at the Vaasa Administrative Court. In addition, Noora has worked as a judge at the Vaasa Administrative Court, where she handled appeals against permit and obligation decisions under the Water Act and the Environmental Protection Act.

Prior to joining Hannes Snellman, Noora worked as a legal counsel in a law firm and as a trainee at the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry.
